The last staff meeting has been held--the last copy read--the last picture tagged--the yearbook is ready for the press.

The staff sincerely hopes that the 1967 Sequence will be a treasure chest of memories for you--memories that may prompt questions, frowns, smiles--all reminders of four good years.

The members of the staff have done a great job, and we wish to thank each of them. Listing the names would cover the whole page so we say simply, "Thank you." We do wish to mention especially, Mrs. Carroll, our advisor. Without her patience, understanding, and drive, the '67 Sequence never would have been finished.

We hope you enjoy our production. We enjoyed editing it for you.

Jane and Debbie
